

Extruder Bearing Hinge - WA-110-S

Part in Context

The part is shown mirrored since the counterbores are on the back face of the part.

This is the second part of the extruder that will serve to mount the motor and provide an area that will house the extruder nozzle and insulating plastic. The notched area is to serve as the other end of the spring or rubber band.

